THE BUFF CHRONICLES

NOTES FROM THE IPSC RANGE CHAIRMAN

Whatcha gonna do for super bowl weekend when there's a neat 3-gun match on Saturday and you gotta work Sunday afternoon and the match is at 5 Dogs in Bakersfield. Answer: everything.

So ol' Buff saddles mom's 300D and books south on I 5 around noon Friday, now that's a boring drive. Put it in cruise control at 75 and after two hours my leg fell asleep and had to stop at a rest area for a walk...(thanks Herb)...rendezvous with six others from around here for dinner at 6:00 and luck out into Buck Owens' Crystal Palace just as the dinner show begins. Seems Buck drops 7+ mil into his own dinner and dance club and plays the Friday and Saturday dinner shows with the Buckaroos. The band was terrific albeit quite loud--don't miss this place if you are in Bakersfield. It was funny, though, trying to carry on a conversation with 7 hearing impaired shooters in a place with 120 decibel ambient music. It was Howie's 75th birthday, but he still won't dance--so we ate too much and thanks to not so watchful bill tending by yours truly, we double tipped and went off to prepare for the match.

Saturday morning was raining and I'm getting ready to do a round trip without unbagging when the rain stopped in time for our first stage. Six total stages--two of each and we finished around 3:30 just as the rain began again. We all had a nice barbecue lunch at the range and checked results and left around 4:00. Our boys did quite well. Adam Carlson won the match, Dave Antonini was 3rd, Larry Albaugh, and Ken San Agustin in the top ten and a couple of the rest of us in the upper half of the 56 person match. I got through unscathed including a rifle stage which require 115 yards of movement between the two arrays. Now most of the guys ran, but I did the Buff Shuffle from which the old tune "Shuffle off as Buffalo" comes. Howie and I were gonna have a trot-off, but I couldn't find my truss or a sundial for timing, so we just vowed to brag about our velocity over martinis soon.

Hit the road around 7:00 and had a fine super bowl at one of the cribs. Next time I'll finally reveal the real story of how I invented Buffalo Wings.

Your gracefully aging figurehead,

H. Buffington Porcine IV
