THE BUFF CHRONICLES

NOTES FROM THE IPSC RANGE
CHAIRMAN

Well I know I promised to keep my comments to shooting, but what's more important than barbecue anyhow? So I went to the Road Runner at the Ione range outside of Sacramento last month with the express intent of porkin' out a couple of times along the way. Friday night I pop a mile or so from the Cameron Park Park, that is, Best Western and hit the Back 40 Barbecue--ribs are good and so-called hot sauce is really not, but's better than lots of places I been.

Saturday a.m. arrives and after breakfast (Egg Macmuffin with sausage if you really wanna know) I cruise to the range for a terrific six stage 3-gun match. Two rifle, two pistol, and two shotgun stages all long and varied in design. One of the rifle stages was a close up and personal hoser and the other was a 35 plate semi long shot array. Both pistol were hose monsters. One shotgun was fast and medium; the other was an endurance event.

Only 20 people shot the match, and we split into 2 squads of 10 each. My squad was about the easiest group I've ever been in at any match. Don't think we had to call any thing but next shooter since everyone just pitched in and did the work without being asked. The day was long and very hot and all of us were dessicated and burnt by the time we hit our last stage. This was a very long shotgun number with 35 shots (4 slugs and 31 plates or poppers). Gazed around and all the rest of the guys looked like I felt--I of course still looked marvelous. Anyway, we finished around 5:00 and after a nice shower and clean clothes, me 'n Howie booked to Poor Red's BBQ in El Dorado at the corner of Pleasant Valley Road and Highway 49. They didn't have Bombay gin, so we had to settle for Beefeaters, but that was ok due to our state of extreme fatigue and sunburn. BTW Howie had the ribs and so did I.

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH REPORT

MAY 4, 1997

The MD for May has quit shooting and the match official coordinator decided that this one would be the responsibility of the BOD for putting on this match. Rod Maeda volunteered to be MD and showed up even though he was sick. I told him to go home and that I would take over as MD (of course everything was already done).

The stages were set up Saturday and boy did they do a great job! A variety of shooting to live up to the reputation of the Hot Shots. All the stages were field courses with many ways to shoot them. No way was best out which way was best for the shooter. This is the type of shooting that makes you use your noodle. I found myself in the hole still thinking which way to shoot the stage. Boy I love this type of stages.

Thanks to Rod for putting together the match and without the help of Wesley Lew for stats, Steve Wong, Matt Wayne, Steve Sui, Ray Wakida, Russ Wakida, Valter Hashimoto, and Al Jung (Al didn't even shoot the match) this wouldn't have been possible. Boy, these names sound familiar. Please take time to thank these guys that always seem to be doing something at the matches. Better yet ask how you can help. We need the help of others if the club is to continue to grow and prosper. We don't want these shooters to get burned out. All the stats with the winners and what place did I finish are elsewhere in this newsletter but all that showed up to shoot are the real winners.
